

Carsten Wortmann - CEO

Carsten Wortmann has focused exclusively on trade between Asia and Europe since 2006.

Carsten is the CEO of Carsten Wortmann Global Partners. He has previously held a variety of management positions in Germany, Sweden and Russia, and has worked for firms such as Arthur Andersen, Ernst & Young and Kienbaum Management Consultants GmbH. In addition, Carsten also spent time managing a medium-sized company in China. He is a management expert who has studied in Germany, Great Britain and the USA, and also holds an MBA. He has published many articles about Global Sourcing, holds regular lectures about Global Supply Chain Management, and is also a member of the German-Hong Kong Association, as well as Frankfurt International Alliance (FIA). Carsten also enjoys cycling and is a keen hobby biologist who takes care of his saltwater reef fish tank.